

INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

You advance America.

Maureen,

Thank you for exceeding all of my expectations...

Your presentation at the Embassy Suites in Chicago on April 29th 2009 was so much more than I or my team of Directors had expected or anticipated.

You not only were energetic, motivational and inspirational, but, you spoke directly to our industry in a way that was genuine, real and applicable...Unbelievable!

I' ve been in positions of leadership for over 20 years, I' ve seen dozens of presenters move an audience, but, never have I seen a group of men and women be so moved in such a real way as I did the day you spoke to us...at different times throughout your presentation, you had 12 men and women: laughing, crying, and even cheering for each other. What you shared and they way you shared it, changed perspectives and changed lives!

Thank you Maureen O' Brien for your contribution to our Quarterly Business Review meeting last month, it was memorable!

Additional comments from a couple of my DDO's

Maureen,

I would like to thank you for sharing your life trials, tribulations and successes. You are a true inspiration and motivator to women and men in any type of business. Everything you say fits to the one who wants to wear it. It isn't something you just listen to or read it contains valuable insight to a successful personal life and career. I have read the book several times making notes and I am all over the Takecara "U" work book. I have my BGP on and on the road to mapping my success!

Life itself is sales!

I really enjoyed the presentation from speaker Maureen O'Brien. I haven't experienced many motivational presentations that move me to think about, "Getting My Big Girl Pants On" with a different attitude. Maureen's presentation brought a diverse group of people together in a way that can only be explained by her "Blessing Cup", and her own inspirational story that had truly impacted all of us. Maureen was a welcome change to motivational speakers.
